

K-Love is uplifting to me and my family. It is something decent that I can listen to without depressing and harmful lyrics that promotes violence and sex! It is a tool to reach people who are in need and searching for help in their lives. Losing K-Love would be a terrible mistake and would be forever missed!